Warsaw, March 14, N. S.

THE 9th Instant the Count de Wilseck, Chamberlain to the Duke of Lorrain, who brought hither the Letters of Notification of the Marriage lately celebrated between the Duke of Lorrain his Master and the Archdutchess Maria Theresa, had his Audience of Leave of the King and Queen, and had the King's Picture richly set with Diamonds presented to him. The 10th M. d' Ehrestein, First Valet de Chambre to the Emperour, who was likewise sent hither by his Imperial Majesty on the same Occasion, having received his Dispatches, had the Honour of taking his Leave of their Majesties, and receiving as a Present a Ring of great Value. The 11th the Castellan of Presnulsic, Soltisk, being arrived here from Konigsberg, was introduced to an Audience of the King by the Crown Marshal, and this Senator having made his Submission to his Majesty, was graciously received. The 12th the Palatin of Vitespsk, Oginsky, who was the Chief, and Marshal of the General Confederation of Lithuania, being likewise arrived from Konigsberg, accompanied by his Son, four Marshals of private Confederations of Lithuania, and the Secretary of the General Confederation of that Dutchy, the Crown Marshal presented them to the King, and they having made their Submissions to his Majesty, were graciously received. The 13th the Palatin of Belsk, Potocki, arrived here from Konigsberg, and was introduced to the King by the Crown Marshal, and having made his Submission to the King, he was likewise graciously received by his Majesty.

Hague, March 30, N. S. The States of Holland are sitting, and having many things under their Consideration, it is very likely they will continue their Assembly next Week. The Pensionary has been every Day present at it, being now pretty well. We have an Account here, that Prince William of Hesse Cassel, who was daily expected at this Place, is gone to Hanau, upon the News that the Count of that Name was in a dying Condition. M. de Leyden alias de Vlaardingen died last Night, and by his Death there are several Places vacant, for which there are already many Sollicitors. The Lord Delawar went in a Coach for Utrecht on Wednesday last, designing to continue his Journey for Gotha the Day following. The Admiralty of Rotterdam have ordered their House at Helvoetsluys to be ready for receiving the Princess, in case her Highness be obliged to make some Stay there.

St. James's, March 20.

This Day the Count du Hautoy, Envoy from the Duke of Lorrain, had a private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia and Caroline.

And afterwards of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Mary and Louisa; to both which he was introduc'd by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, March 16, 1735-6.

Whereas the Dwelling House of Thomas Teddeman, of Harbledown, in the County of Kent, Esq; was in the Night Time, between the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Days of February last past, broke open and robbed of above Three Hundred and Ninety Pounds in Money, and other Goods, by Persons unknown. And whereas John Roberts of Canterbury, Apothecary, going to the House of the said Thomas Teddeman, his Father in-law, on the 6th Day of March Instant, about Twelve of the Clock in the Night of the same Day, was attacked in a violent Manner by Persons unknown, in the Yard adjoining to the Dwelling House of the said Thomas Teddeman, in Harbledown aforesaid, and robbed of his Money, one of which Persons shot him through his Left Arm with a Pistol, which shattered it in so terrible a Manner, that the same was forced to be cut off above the bending of the Arm in about four Hours after he was shot as aforesaid: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in either of the said Robberies, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person that shot the said John Roberts) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, Edward Roberts, an Apothecary in Drury-lane, in the County of Middlesex, promises a Reward of Fifty Pounds for apprehending the said Persons, or any of them, to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Edward Roberts.

Navy-Office, March 22, 1735.
